AEROPORTO FALCONE - BORSELLINO

A scenic view from a balcony at Baglio Santacroce. In the foreground, a round wicker table and three matching chairs are set on a terracotta-tiled terrace. A black wrought-iron railing with decorative scrollwork runs along the edge of the balcony. Behind the railing, there are lush green plants, including a tall palm tree and various flowering shrubs. In the background, a large, historic stone building with a terracotta-tiled roof and two small square towers is visible. Beyond the building, the landscape opens up to a view of the sea and a large, rugged mountain under a clear blue sky.

Kolymbetra Garden

The image shows the interior of a restaurant or dining hall. The room is characterized by large, floor-to-ceiling windows that offer a panoramic view of a valley with rolling hills and a distant town. The dining area is furnished with dark wooden tables and white chairs. Several tables are set with white tablecloths, glassware, and plates. A small potted plant sits on one of the tables. To the right, a glass door leads to an outdoor terrace with wicker furniture. The floor is made of large, light-colored tiles. The overall atmosphere is bright and airy, thanks to the natural light from the windows.
